

Withdrawal policy (UI-sponsored programs)

After applying for a Study Abroad Program, notice of withdrawal must be made in writing to University of Iowa Study Abroad. The date on which the letter or e-mail message is received is the date by which your costs will be calculated. If for any reason you withdraw after the confirmation deadline and before or during the course of the program, the amount shown in the following chart represents what you will be required to pay to the University of Iowa.

Date of Withdrawal	Student Financial Responsibility
Between confirmation and 45 days before program start date	$500
Between 44 and 30 days before the program start date	$1000
Between 29 and 15 days before the program start date	$2000
Less than 14 days before the program start date	100% of Study Abroad Administrative Fees ($400) 100% of Program Tuition and Fees

*Consult with your Study Abroad advisor for any clarification about fees and billing. Note that when you withdraw from a program, any money already paid directly to a program provider and/or a host university will potentially be forfeited. Check with your specific provider/host university for details. Additional penalties and/or forfeitures of monies already spent for cancellation of airline tickets may also apply. Check with your airline for further details.
